DFCU Financial Donates $10,000 to Judson Center

DEARBORN, Mich., Sept. 22, 2005 -- DFCU Financial, Michigan's largest credit union, recently donated $10,000 to Judson Center, a non-profit human service agency in southeastern Michigan that helps educate and improve the lives of children, adults and families.

The check was presented by Mark Shobe, president and chief executive officer of DFCU Financial, and Jerry Brandman, chief operating officer of DFCU Financial, during the Judson Center board meeting on Tuesday, Sept., 20, 2005.

"DFCU Financial has a long-standing commitment to support educational-based organizations and we're proud to extend our assistance to Judson Center, which is one of the most important and successful agencies for assisting children, adults and families in our area," Shobe said.

"Judson Center is very grateful to DFCU Financial for their generosity and commitment to helping those we serve," said Marn Myers, Judson Center president and CEO. "Through this partnership, we look forward to helping many more children and families overcome life's greatest challenges and realize their hopes and dreams."

DFCU Financial, formerly named Dearborn Federal Credit Union, is headquartered in Dearborn, Mich. With more than $1.7 billion in assets, DFCU Financial is the largest credit union in Michigan. It currently operates eight full-service Detroit-area branch offices in addition to educational student-run branches at Dearborn High School and Livonia Franklin High School.

To find out how you can join DFCU Financial, call 313.336.2700 or 888.336.2700 from outside the local area. Or visit www.dfcufinancial.com.
